CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

Digital Gazetteer Research and Practice: A 2 1/2-day workshop for the presentation, discussion, and summarization of current issues and opportunities

Convened by the National Center for Geographic Information and Analysis, University of California, Santa Barbara, and the Redlands Institute.
Sponsored by the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency and the Army Research Office

Location: Upham Hotel, Santa Barbara
Dates: Early evening of Thursday, December 7, 2006 through late on Saturday December 9th (participants will depart early Sunday)

Application deadlines

30 September 2006: 1) A two-page expression of interest in the topics of the meeting, 2) A two-page resumé. Both to be sent as email attachments to good@geog.ucsb.edu

15 October 2006: notification of acceptance.

Limited support is available to academic participants to cover the costs of travel (up to $600 domestic and $1000 international) and accommodation. Requests for support should be included with applications.

Organizing committee

Michael F. Goodchild, University of California, Santa Barbara (Co-Chair)
Linda L. Hill, University of California, Santa Barbara (Co-Chair)
Allen Carroll, National Geographic Society
Tom Elliott, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
John R. Frank, MetaCarta Inc
Jim Frew, University of California, Santa Barbara
Bruce Gittings, University of Edinburgh
Jordan Hastings, University of California, Santa Barbara
Greg Janée, University of California, Santa Barbara
Christopher B. Jones, University of Cardiff
Naicong Li, Redlands Institute
David M. Mark, University at Buffalo
John Wilson, University of Southern California